July 1, 2018

Dear Friends in Christ,

This Wednesday, the 4th of July, we in the United States will celebrate Independence Day, the day each year when we remember and celebrate our independence as a nation. On July 2, 1776, the Second Continental Congress passed the Lee Resolution, which declared the United Colonies free and independent states. Two days later, the Declaration of Independence was adopted and sent for publication, and ever since, this day has been celebrated as John Adams predicted, "as the day of deliverance, by solemn acts of devotion to God Almighty.... solemnized with pomp and parade, with shows, games, sports, guns, bells, bonfires, and illuminations, from one end of this continent to the other, from this time forward forever more."

Of course, this was not the end of the work of establishing our country. The American Revolution had to be fought, and when independence was won, the Constitution of the United States had to be written. The Constitution describes the constraints of our government, and sets forth rights that belong to citizens, which the government cannot justly curtail. The First Amendment to the Constitution says this: "Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; or abridging the freedom of speech, or of the press; or the right of the people peaceably to assemble, and to petition the Government for a redress of grievances." The first clause of this amendment is known as the Establishment Clause, which prevents the federal government from creating a national church, or favoring one religion over another; the Free Exercise guarantees that we might fully practice our religion without fear of reprisal.

However, despite this constitutional guarantee of religious freedom, religious people, and especially Catholics, have long had to fight to protect this freedom. This has been true throughout our history, and is especially true in our time. In recent years, the Supreme Court has regularly engaged in a kind of pseudo-religious anthropology, attempting to define such things as the nature of the human person and the nature of marriage on its own authority, without reference to God, and Congress used the force of law and the coercive power of fines against religious persons when the Affordable Care Act attempted to impose the necessity to provide contraceptive coverage on Christian charities. These incidents and others should remind us that, though our religious freedom is protected by the Constitution, this protection is not unassailable. It is incumbent upon us as Christians to watch for these incursions of the government into the realm of faith, and fight them when they occur. This is the only way to ensure that our freedom of religion is not slowly eroded by sly judicial obfuscation, broken apart by legislative presumption, or otherwise born away, piece by piece, by the violence of the fallen world.

May the Lord bless and keep you always, and may you have a happy and joyful Independence Day!

Fr. Morgan

HOLY LAND CRAFTS

On the weekend of July 7th & 8th, there will be a display of beautiful olivewood hand carvings from the town of Bethlehem at the church. These carvings are made by Christians of Bethlehem who use them as their source of income. These brothers and sisters of ours are enduring hardships at this moment because of the volatile situation in their home country. Christians in the Holy Land used to be more than 30% of the population, now they are less than 1.5% because of the situation. You can support them by purchasing these carvings. By sending the proceeds back to the craftsmen's families, this solution has allowed Christian families to remain in their homeland and work at their traditional crafts. The money flowing back to the families has allowed them to maintain a stable way of life and allowed them to work at what they know best. Yours In Christ, Michael and Diane | newsitco@hotmail.com

INVITATION TO LIVE IN THE WILL OF GOD

The most pleasing act to God is to live in His Most Holy Divine Will. It is an answer to the Lord's prayer, "...thy will be done on Earth as it is in Heaven." The Divine Will Cenacle is not a devotion, it is a way to live in God's will through prayer, rosary, reading and discussion. Meetings are held every last Thursday of each month from 10 -11:30am or 7-8:30pm. For more information, call John Keenan at (843) 236-0343.

CATHOLIC CHARITIES – PEE DEE BACK TO SCHOOL DRIVE

Catholic Charities will be collecting Back to School items to be distributed at A Day of Hope on Sat, Aug 11th for students that are homeless or in need in Horry County. Please drop off items (from school supply list below) for this event in the back of the church in the boxes labeled Catholic Charities until Sun, Aug 5th. The average value of a complete backpack and school items is $30. If you would like to make a monetary donation, checks can be mailed directly to Catholic Charities at 2294 Technology Blvd, Conway, SC 29526 (Tel: 855-377-1357 ext 1). Please designate your donation as Special Event in your check's memo section. Supplies needed:

REACHING HIGHER IN MIND, BODY, & SPIRIT

PIONEERING SPIRIT ESSAY CONTEST WINNER

ALEXANDRA GONZALEZ

Principal Ted Hanes awards the second annual Monsignor James LeBlanc Pioneering Spirit Essay Contest award to Alexandra Gonzalez. The annual $300 award was created and sponsored by a generous benefactor of St. Andrew Parish. Named after Monsignor LeBlanc, President of the St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Catholic High School Planning Board during the school's founding, the contest acknowledges and pays tribute to his pioneering spirit. Designed to inspire personal reflection, writing, and communication skills, students composed an essay on a pioneer of their choosing who has made significant impact not only in society but also is relatable to the students' own life. Alexandra chose Marie Curie for her contributions to science and medicine. It is hoped that this award will be the first of many merit-based scholarship contests available to our students.

St Andrew Catholic Church proudly announces the winners of the "Freedom of Religion" speech contest that was sponsored by Catholics for Freedom of Religion (CFFR). The two student parishioners that tied for first place are Annamaria Bleyer and Regina Vehige. The students were required to write and then present a 2-3 minute speech on religious liberty at the celebration of National Religious Freedom Day in January and again at the opening celebration of Religious Freedom Week on Friday, June 22nd. Each winner was awarded a certificate of appreciation, a booklet on the US Constitution and $100 for a job well done. We are pleased that our students understand and appreciate the importance of our religious freedom and the necessity to defend our first amendment right! For information about CFFR, contact Carol Jean Walters who serves as Dir at cjwalters@catholicsforfreedomofreligion.org or at #631-926-0995 or #843-236-0162.

The St Andrew Gift Shop has used religious book on sale at 2 for $1. It also has lovely garden statues and many other items for your religious needs. The Gift Shop is located in the vestibule of the Church.

Prayer for the United States

God our Father, Giver of life, we entrust the United States of America to Your loving care. You are the rock on which this nation was founded. You alone are the true source of our cherished rights to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. Reclaim this land for Your glory and dwell among Your people. Send Your Spirit to touch the hearts of our nation's leaders. Open their minds to the great worth of human life and the responsibilities that accompany human freedom. Remind Your people that true happiness is rooted in seeking and doing Your will. Through the intercession of Mary Immaculate, Patroness of our land, grant us the courage to reject the "culture of death". Lead us into a new millennium of life. We ask this through Christ Our Lord. Amen.

Convertiste mi duelo en alegría te alabaré por eso eternamente.

— Salmo 30 (29):13

AYÚDAME, SEÑOR

Hoy escuchamos lecturas que nos acercan al misterio de sufrimiento y muerte. En los últimos años hemos sido testigos de la devastación de vidas y propiedades a manos de tsunamis y huracanes. Muchos elevaron su lamento a Dios y preguntaron: "¿Por qué?" Esta es una expresión sincera de ira hacia un Dios que creemos da la vida. Cuando perdemos a un ser querido, puede que nos preguntemos por qué la presencia de Cristo no es suficiente para hacer que esa persona resucite, incluso de entre los muertos, como la pequeña niña del pasaje del Evangelio de hoy. Entonces alzamos la voz y preguntamos: "¿Por qué?" En momentos como estos, debemos acudir a la oración del salmista: "¡Escucha Señor y ten piedad de mí; Señor, socórreme". Recemos para que nuestro luto algún día se convierta en danza.

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

Esta semana conmemoramos al apóstol santo Tomás, el cual es normalmente recordado por haber dudado de la resurrección de Jesucristo. La incredulidad de este santo es explicada en el Evangelio según san Juan (20:19-31) con la famosa frase: "Si no veo en sus manos la señal de los clavos y no meto mi dedo en el agujero de los clavos y no meto mi mano en su costado, no creeré."

Los latinos somos de culturas religiosas que consideran la incredulidad como algo pecaminoso y camino al ateísmo. Hay que aceptar que la duda es algo normal en el ser humano. Dudo que exista alguien que nunca haya dudado de su fe. Sólo al aceptar esta duda estaremos abiertos a la invitación de Jesús: "Acerca aquí tu dedo y mira mis manos; trae tu mano y métela en mi costado, y no seas incrédulo sino creyente." Santo Tomás aceptó esta invitación y llegó a su gran proclamación de fe: "Señor mío, y Dios mío". La duda no es mala, para muchos es el camino a una fe más profunda y a un compromiso mayor.

—Fray Gilberto Cavazos-Giz, OFM

LA CORRESPONSABILIDAD DIARIA

Como bautizados, somos llamados a ser una comunidad, y somos más fuertes cuando todos los miembros tenemos plena fe en Jesucristo. Cuando uno de nosotros titubea o comienza a dudar de su fe, es cuando debemos compartir nuestra fe con libertad como fuente de fortaleza. Si nos guardamos nuestra fe para nosotros, entonces los que nos rodean no tendrán la oportunidad de ser edificados y fortalecidos por nuestro testimonio.

Podemos dar de nuestro dinero, nuestro tiempo y nuestros talentos con libertad; pero aun así no compartir nuestra fe con quienes nos rodean. Esto limita la capacidad del Cuerpo de Cristo para evangelizar y difundir las Buenas Nuevas. Además mantiene débiles a los miembros del Cuerpo, porque sin la oportunidad de escuchar nuestras historias de fe, aquellos que necesitan escucharnos permanecerán desanimados y perdidos.

La fe es un don de Dios para nosotros, como cualquier otro. Estamos llamados a cultivar nuestra fe y hacerla crecer en abundancia. Si no la compartimos con otros, entonces ¿por qué habría de crecer? No somos salvos porque tenemos más fe que los demás. No estamos mejor que un bebé en su día de bautismo por tener depósitos llenos de conocimiento, devoción y experiencia en la fe. La diferencia entre el bebé y nosotros es que ahora tenemos algo que compartir y la responsabilidad de hacerlo. -Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS
