WELCOME

The parishioners of St. Andrew Catholic Church are happy to extend a warm welcome to the many visitors who join us for worship today.

*St. Andrew Parish,
 a Roman Catholic community, seeks to nurture the faith and serve the needs of parishioners and visitors by proclaiming the Gospel of Jesus Christ through active stewardship, ministries of word and sacrament, programs of Christian formation, and works of charity and justice.*

GUIDELINES FOR THE RECEPTION OF HOLY COMMUNION

As Catholics, we fully participate in the celebration of the Mass when we receive Holy Communion, the true Body and Blood of the Lord. Yet, we Catholics should receive Holy Communion only when we are living in communion with the Catholic Church and in the state of sanctifying grace and have made the appropriate fast from food and drink.

Because of the connection we draw between being in full communion with the Catholic Church and receiving Holy Communion, we cannot invite those who are not Catholic to share in Holy Communion with us. Still, we welcome all to this celebration of the Mass as our brothers and sisters, and pray that our common baptism and the action of the Holy Spirit will one day draw us closer "...that all may be one." (John 17:22)

PRINCIPAL'S CORNER

Dear St. Andrew Family,

St. Andrew Catholic School takes pride in our Country and feels blessed to be American! We proudly recite the Pledge of Allegiance every morning, the 8th graders raise our Flag, and students participate in the writing and speech contests offered by Catholics for Freedom of Religion. Next week, during morning announcements, we will recite the Patriotic Rosary as a school family. We will also honor our Veterans at the 9:00am school Mass on Wednesday, November 9th. Student Council will lead us in this Mass and the Knights of Columbus will teach us about the importance and symbolism behind folding our Flag properly and with respect. Veterans are welcome to attend. We ask that any Veteran please sit in the first section directly behind the students.

Thank you to all our Veterans and anyone in service to our Country. Please keep all of these men and women in your prayers.

Warmly,
Debbie Wilfong
Principal

CATHOLICS FOR FREEDOM OF RELIGION

Invite YOU to join us in praying "PATRIOTIC ROSARY FOR AMERICA" on Monday, November 7th at 3PM at Warbird Park on Farrow Parkway Market Commons (where the military aircraft are displayed).

This is on the eve of the most important election of our time. Patriotic prayers and Rosaries are provided. Please bring folding chairs, a blanket, or cushion (for sitting on the surrounding cement wall). As always, we will pray in the public square for our country, our President and Vice President, our Supreme Court Justices, all elected and appointed State and Federal officials, our Law Enforcement Officers, our Military (who have served and are serving), and FOR LIFE and LIBERTY! The UNITED STATES OF AMERICA needs our prayers! Let's pray together in the public square at the old "Myrtle Beach Air Force Base".

We also invite everyone to a movie on Election Day, November 8, 2016 at 2pm in St. Andrew CLC. The movie – GOD'S NOT DEAD 2 – is a powerful call to action that asks the question "where will you stand when your freedom of religion is denied including your right of conscience?" This is the perfect topic since it is clear that our country is at a crossroad and the outcome of this election will determine which path we follow in preserving our First Amendment Rights.

For information contact Carol Jean Walters, Director SC Catholics For Freedom of Religion at cjwalters@catholicsforfreedomofreligion.org or by phone at either #843-236-0162 or #631-926-0995. 5

Not liberal.

Not conservative.

Simply Catholic.

Catholic citizenship & your vote

We have a dual heritage as both faithful Catholics and American citizens. As Catholics, our baptismal commitment to bear public witness to the values of Jesus Christ requires our active participation in the democratic life of our nation. As Americans, we have a serious moral obligation to vote. This brief insert is intended as a starting point to help us respond to our choices in the current political landscape.

There are many issues before us . ★ ★ ★ ★ ★

The Right to Life and Dignity of the Human Person

Innocent human life is destroyed by abortion, euthanasia, "fertility treatments" such as in-vitro fertilization, experimentation using stem cells from human embryos, and cloning to manufacture human body parts. Catholic teaching about the sanctity of human life also leads us to oppose the death penalty, genocide, torture, unjust wars, and economic policies that ignore the needs of the poor and vulnerable.

Call to Family, Community, and Participation

The family, which emerges from marriage between a man and a woman, is the original and basic unit of society. Social and economic policies should work to strengthen the family rather than weaken it.

Rights and Responsibilities

Every human being has the right to life and to religious freedom. Everyone has a right to refuse to participate in actions contrary to one's religious beliefs and to share and defend one's creed and moral principles in the public forum. Everyone has the right and duty to participate fully in all aspects of life: political, social, cultural, and economic.

Option for the Poor and Vulnerable

We must have special concern and charity toward the unborn, persons with disabilities, the dying, refugees, long-term unemployed, prisoners, and all who are marginalized in our nation and beyond. Today, the situation of immigrant workers is especially urgent.

Dignity of Work and Rights of Workers

Economic justice includes the opportunity for dignified work at wages sufficient to support a family, workplace safety, and the right to take time for religious observances. Workers also have the duty to provide a fair day's work for a fair day's pay.

Solidarity

Loving our neighbor has global dimensions and requires us to eradicate racism and address the extreme poverty and disease plaguing so much of the world. We are called to welcome the stranger among us, including immigrants seeking work, a safe home, education for their children, and a decent life for their families. We are called to promote peace and pursue justice.

Caring for God's Creation

As stewards, not owners, of the earth, people have an obligation to cherish and care for the environment. The earth yields forth many resources needed for human flourishing, especially energy and the capacity to produce food. These precious resources must be used prudently, fairly, safely, and with a constant concern for future generations.

... but every issue is not equal.

- Issues that directly affect human lives, such as abortion and euthanasia, are fundamental and demand serious consideration.
- Our Constitution heralds religious liberty in the First Amendment, yet increasingly people of faith are having to fight to retain this basic right.
- Our nation has redefined marriage. The marriage of a man and a woman is the foundation of the family and an essential core element of a flourishing society.
- The growing disparity between rich and poor means most of the world's resources are in the hands of a small percentage of its people. The federal budget is a moral document and we prioritize the poorest and most vulnerable among us.
- The millions of undocumented persons living in the United States deserve our compassion. Our immigration system is broken, and we need a humane solution to it.
- War, terror, and violence have caused thousands of lost lives. We must work for just solutions to conflict in the Holy Land, throughout the Middle East, and beyond.

As Catholic citizens, we should remember three things:

1. Respect for the dignity of each person is the core of Catholic social and moral teaching. This is our most basic principle.
2. We focus on the common good, not our own personal interests. We ask, how can we make the world a better place? Not, how can I improve my own personal situation?
3. We have a responsibility, a true obligation, to form our consciences and participate in the civic life of this nation.

Here are ways to form our consciences and participate in civic life:

- Be true to the teachings of the Church. Read Scripture, the Catechism of the Catholic Church, teachings from the Holy See, and the statements of our bishops. Read "Forming Consciences for Faithful Citizenship" at faithfulcitizenship.org. We need to be sure that our reasoning and judgments are well-grounded in our faith.
- Stay well-informed about issues through judicious and reasoned engagement with the immense world of information in the 21st century. Just as all issues are not equal, all sources are not equal. For example, an individual's blog, while potentially very insightful, may not have the same fidelity to factual truth as our media sources that hold themselves to professional standards of journalistic ethics, imperfect though they are.
- † Remain in contact with our representatives in local, state, and federal government. Our responsibility to form our consciences leads to an obligation to be active citizens.
- Engage in reasoned, compassionate, and loving dialogue with others, Catholics and non-Catholics alike, about the issues and choices that we are facing as a nation. Remember that we are all called first to witness the Gospel, and through that witness, to share our social teaching to highlight the moral dimensions of issues, and to participate in debate on public policy.

CATECHISM OF THE CATHOLIC CHURCH

Big News:
the Catechism of the Catholic Church
is back in the Pews!
7,262 went home already!

One of the greatest achievements of Pope John Paul II was the promulgation of the Catechism of the Catholic Church. This Catechism will serve as the standard for all future catechisms. "A sure norm for teaching the Faith", as the Pope said.

Please take and study this Catechism in your own home.

This Catechism costs $5.00 each. Inside the front cover of each book you will find an ENVELOPE as follows:

Dear Sister or Brother in Christ:

This Catechism of the Catholic Church is a most handy summary of the Faith that we profess as Christians. We hope you will take it to your home and read it.

We would thank you for helping out with the costs of this ministry - at $5.00 for each copy of this Catechism - if you are able to donate that amount (or more, or less) by placing your donation in this envelope and then into the collection basket.

Be blessed in the study of your Catechism.
